

PHOENIX INDIAN CENTER GALA & NATIVE AMERICAN ART AUCTION
Painting a Palette of Culture
April 7, 2007 - Radisson Fort McDowell Resort & Casino

EVENT FACT SHEET

WHO	PHOENIX INDIAN CENTER The mission of The Phoenix Indian Center is to promote the social and economic self-sufficiency of Native Americans living in the greater Valley. Programs offered by the Center include Native Workforce Services, Educational Services and Dawning Family Partnerships. These vital programs serve individuals from more than 80 different tribes across the country.
WHAT	24TH ANNUAL FUNDRAISING GALA & NATIVE AMERICAN ART AUCTION The dollars raised through table sponsorships, ticket purchases and the silent art auction are a crucial part of the Center's annual budget. This year's event will once again feature amazing entertainment as well as some of the most beautiful Native American original art available today. Auction items will include a premium selection of one-of-a-kind paintings, sculpture, jewelry and traditional forms of art.
WHEN	SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 2007 5:30 PM – Cocktail Hour & Silent Auction 7:00 PM – Dinner & Entertainment
WHERE	RADISSON FORT MC DOWELL RESORT & CASINO at the Fort McDowell Yavapai Indian Community
COST	$5,000 - $25,000 Table Sponsorships are available Individuals may purchase tickets for $150 each

For additional information, or to RSVP to this event, please call Andrea Tyler Evans at 602-448-5959 or e-mail gala@phxindcenter.org

2601 NORTH THIRD STREET, SUITE 100
PHOENIX, ARIZONA 85004
602.264.6768