EVENT FACT SHEET

WHO

PHOENIX INDIAN CENTER

Our mission is to serve as the primary resource for Native Americans in the Valley of the Sun and to promote and foster Native American culture and contribution to our society as a whole. Programs offered by the Center include Native Workforce Services, Educational Services and Social Services. These vital programs serve individuals from more than 80 different tribes across the country.

WHAT

25TH ANNUAL FUNDRAISING GALA &
NATIVE AMERICAN ART AUCTION

The dollars raised through sponsorships, donations and the silent art auction are a crucial part of the Center's annual budget. This year's event will once again feature amazing entertainment as well as some of the most beautiful and original Native American art available today. Auction items include a premium selection of one-of-a-kind paintings, sculpture, jewelry and both traditional and contemporary forms of art.
