

Phoenix Indian Center Gala & Native American Art Auction
April 8, 2006 • JW Marriott Desert Ridge

23rd Annual Phoenix Indian Center Gala: A Celebration of Native Arts
EVENT FACTS

- WHO Phoenix Indian Center
- The mission of The Phoenix Indian Center is to promote the social and economic self-sufficiency of Native Americans living in the greater Valley. Programs offered by the Center include Native Workforce Services, Educational Services and Dawning Family Partnerships. These vital programs serve individuals from more than 80 different tribes across the country.
- WHAT 23rd Annual Gala & Native American Art Auction
- This year's auction will once again feature some of the most beautiful Native American original art available today. Auction items will include a premium selection of one-of-a-kind paintings, sculpture, jewelry and traditional forms of art.
- WHEN Saturday, April 8, 2006
- 5:30 PM - Cocktail Hour & Silent Auction
7:00 PM - Dinner & Entertainment
- WHERE JW Marriott Desert Ridge
Phoenix, Arizona
- COST $5,000 - $25,000 Table Sponsorships are available
Individuals may purchase tickets for $150 each

For additional information, or to RSVP to this event, please call Andrea Evans at 602-448-5959.