

Honoring the Brilliance of our Diamond Anniversary & 60 years
PHOENIX INDIAN CENTER GALA & NATIVE AMERICAN ART AUCTION
April 19, 2008 & Phoenix Convention Center

Dear Friend:

We live in a world where we should reflect upon the accomplishments of our past and celebrate the future we are facing. This coming year there is an incredibly unique celebration honoring sixty years of service and progress of the oldest Native American social service agency in the country, the Phoenix Indian Center. We are proud to announce we are serving as Honorary Co-Chairpersons for this wonderful celebration, being held on Saturday, April 19, 2008 at the newly remodeled Phoenix Convention Center.

Please join us in this celebration as we take this opportunity to personally encourage you to support this long-lasting and strong charity here in the valley. Whether assisting homeless families, hungry children, jobless people or working hard to keep young people in school through culturally-relevant strategies and events, the Indian Center is the premiere not-for-profit in the Valley serving as a conduit for Native people and acting as an ambassador for the community to the cultures and rich traditions of Native people from around the country.

The funds raised through sponsorships and the silent art auction are vital to the Center's ability to provide much needed services to the Native American community. We sincerely hope that we can count on your support of this important Valley agency.

For 60 years, the Phoenix Indian Center has provided comprehensive community services to Native people in the Valley, serving people from more than 80 tribes in behavioral health, counseling, native workforce services and youth and educational programs. As the County's full service social service agency for Native people, the Center is in critical need of your financial assistance as client numbers continue to grow and funding opportunities lessen.

The Center counts on support from corporations, individuals and government agencies. Please consider this request for a donation to the Phoenix Indian Center and our invitation to attend this year's event. A member of the Gala Committee will be contacting you soon to follow up on the incredible opportunities available to you as an event sponsor. We thank you in advance for joining us and making a commitment to this important community resource and its goals.

Sincerely,

Mayor Phil Gordon
